Maine Quilts 2015 was a fun and successful show!

The quilts were fabulous, colorful, and interesting! I enjoyed our special exhibits particularly seeing the quilts PTQG purchased and donated to the Maine State Museum.

Congratulations to the ribbon winners! The full list is on our website, <http://www.mainequilts.org>. We are working on pictures to be posted in a couple weeks and on Face book.

Thank you all for volunteering, enjoying the learning opportunities with our teachers, spending your money with our vendors, and supporting the various fundraisers.

Thank you to the chairpersons and the hours spent organizing and preparing your parts for the show.

And yes, the Murder Mystery Theater on Friday night was a huge success with a standing ovation. (Susan Bulay was the murderer!)

Working on Maine Quilts 2016 already! If you would like to join us as a Chairperson let me know. We can talk about what is available. Come join us and be part of this PTQG event.
