Diane Harris “The Stash Bandit” Diane Harris is a scrap quilt specialist. After 11 years as an editor for Quiltmaker magazine, she formed Stash Bandit to help quilters use their fabric collections and make quilts that are both unique and beautiful. She never met a fabric she didn't like. Her work is featured in a variety of publications in the US and abroad. Diane lives on a working farm in rural Nebraska and has been quilting for more than 40 years. Learn more at stashbandit.net and on Instagram @stashbanditquilts.

Workshop Registration will continue to be online only, opening March 15th for Pine Tree Quilt Guild members. Non-members may register beginning April 16th. Be the first to sign up for the classes you want. Very easy and efficient. You'll love it!

Look for more information on our website – www.mainequilts.org as well as in future issues of Piecing Together Maine Quilts and The Patchwork Press about quilt show details and workshops being offered as we continue to gather the descriptions and supply lists from the teachers.
