Maine Quilts 2026 is over and what a fabulous show it was! A big shout out to all Committee Chairs and Volunteers! You went above and beyond, giving countless hours of your time, to ensure the show was a success! It was my pleasure to work with all of you! Thank you so much!

There are some new opportunities for you to be part of the team for Maine Quilts 2027 - Chairpersons play a key role in the development and implementation of the show. If you would be interested in one of the open positions, please contact me!
